Sadler's Wells Access for All Registration

The Access for All Register enables Sadler's Wells to better serve our patrons with disabilities who have specific access needs. The register is free to join and provides you with additional information about forthcoming shows and events at Sadler's Wells and the Peacock Theatre.

To become a member of the Access for All register please fill in this form and return it to Sadler's Wells' Ticket Office. Membership of the Register lasts for three years after which time Members will have to re-apply.

Access Ticket Discount

If you are in receipt of disability-related state benefits, are in receipt of a 'Certificate of Visual Impairment' or are on the ICOUNT Register, then you may be entitled to a 50% reduction on your ticket price. Should you require an extra seat for a Personal Assistant/Carer, their ticket will also be reduced by 50%. The discount applies to a seat in any part of the theatre, is subject to availability and limited to one discounted booking per production.

Proof of eligibility is required to join the discounted ticket scheme.

If you believe you are entitled to this discount, please enclose a copy of proof that you are in receipt of disability-related state benefits. A full list of accepted criteria is available on request or at:

www.sadlerswells.com/page/access-scheme.
